

We are looking for a Trainee consultant with social media and global health knowledge acumen public affairs (www.acumen-publicaffairs.com) is an independent consultancy that combines the very best of big agency experience with hands-on senior support. The 15 person strong acumen team have an impressive track record in public affairs and strategic communications gained from working for corporations, governments, trade associations, NGOs and international institutions in Brussels, Geneva and beyond.

At acumen public affairs, you will have the unique opportunity to work directly with some highly experienced professionals. We are a small agency but we are growing and we regularly look for dynamic trainee consultants to join us since we are only looking for the very best young professionals to join the team. We offer a six-month paid internship that could very well turn into a long-term contract.

Currently, Acumen has a vacancy for a traineeship at acumen public affairs with a focus on global health and social media.

We invite candidates with the following skills and experience to apply:

- Concrete social media skills, such as drafting and scheduling tweets; drafting blogs and content for websites;
- Keen interest in the global health sector
- Perfect command of English and at least one other language
- Advanced research and writing skills and ability to quickly summarise issues
- Strong planning skills and ability to work in a team whilst carrying out own tasks independently and to agreed deadlines
- Knowledge of the EU or UN institutions AND/OR a thorough knowledge of the media and communications/PR
- Flexibility, enthusiasm, ability to work under tight deadlines in an international environment
- Availability of 6-months at least.

Sounds like you? Please send your resume and cover letter to info@acumen-publicaffairs.com.

We look forward to meeting you!

The Acumen Partners

NB: We are interested in talented people who are interested in us. In your application, please take the time to explore what added value your unique personality and competences could bring to us. Untailored applications or candidates that do not have the required skills and experience will not be taken into account.